General Comment

It has been brought to my attention that special privileges would allow religious employers to keep from women access to birth control, to which they are legally entitled to.

While great injustices have come about by those seeking to cheat the law, greater ones are those that legally give others superiority over the law, for reasons that include the labeling of their actions as sanctified.

I write to you because I feel the time has come to lead modern society into an age of civil and rational rights for all. Women deserve this right with guaranteed certainty, 100% and nothing less as it is their bodies, not the employers.

Please act on this law, and all others, logically.
